The concurrence between a research centre of competence, CERAG, a strong international cooperation (Asia, South America, United-States, Europe) and a deep concern in the students' professionalization guarantee the integration of the students into the work force, both thanks to an adulthood education (continuous education) and students' academic programs (as part of their course of study).

Research:

CERAG (in French): Centre d'études et de recherches appliquées à la gestion (UMR CNRS) - Research and Study Centre Applied to Management, government-sponsored
