Activities:

Within its general training mission, the second cycle of the Grenoble Law Department syllabus focuses on international development, offering the possibility of integrating a one-year stay in Europe or North America. In addition to strong focus on research, notably in the fields of fundamental law, intellectual property and European issues, the third cycles lead to professionalization.

Studies:

The Law Department ensures preparation for the magistracy, Bar, solicitors careers and administrative examinations.

Some online classes ("administrative science", "Roman law texts, "comparative main legal systems", "history of contract law") are made available by the lecturers.

The Law Department also proposes distance education.
